ADVENTIST[®]
 CHURCH

October 23, 2021

Welcome to Ava Seventh-Day Adventist Church!

We extend a special welcome to all our guests today. Sabbath is a time set apart by our Creator for worship and communion with Him and we pray our time together will be edifying and encouraging. Please see the greeter in the lobby for any assistance. We hope you will come again and consider becoming part of our family.

Thought for the Day

The devotion which God requires reveals itself in unfeigned love for the souls for whom Christ gave His life. Christ dwelling in the heart will be manifested by the love which He enjoins upon His disciples. His true children will prefer others to themselves. They do not seek for the lion's share at any time or in any place, because they do not look upon their talents as superior to those of their brethren. When this is indeed the case, the sign will be given in a revelation of the love which Christ manifested for the souls of men--an unselfish, unfeigned love, which preferred the welfare of others before His own.--MS 121, 1899. {1MCP 241.2}

Prayer Corner

Please join us in lifting the following up in prayer today and throughout the coming week: Please pray for Teresa & Raymond Cardwell & family, Gwyn & Ivan Downs, Fred Farthing and Marilyn Wynn. Also pray for Mel & Cheryl Cline as they settle into their new home. Continue to pray for Hanna Nickell (Jim Calkins' daughter), John Horner and Arden Wood for continued health and healing. Pray always for our pastor and his family, our children, our members, our friends, and those who are in need and hurting. Let someone who isn't here today know they are missed. Let us continue to pray for the filling of the Holy Spirit in us as individuals and as a church body as we represent Him in our homes and in this community.
