

Dear Friend,

Our sincere apologies for the delay in sending this announcement to you.

ADRA, in partnership with the British Columbia Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, is responding to the devastating floods currently impacting the province. Please share the following announcement and graphic through your church's bulletin or newsletter from Sabbath, November 20 to Sabbath, December 18, 2021.

Torrential downpours triggered widespread flooding and landslides across British Columbia.

Thousands of people have been displaced from their homes. People are in urgent need of food, shelter, and hygiene supplies.

The British Columbia Conference of Seventh-day Adventists' Camp Hope is providing shelter to hundreds of displaced families. ADRA, with the BC

Conference, is responding with food, water, and temporary shelter in partnership with local churches.

The people of British Columbia need your help. Please give today at <https://www.adra.ca/bcfloods/>.

Thank you for your assistance.
