Fellowship meal is today! To reduce the risk of spreading COVID, haystacks will be prepped and served by a team who will wear masks and use gloves. We hope you can join us.

Our Fall Church Campout is coming up October 8-10 at Woodland Acres.

EndItNow is an initiative of the worldwide church of Seventh-day Adventists to address violence and abuse. Please stop by the EndItNow table in the foyer today for free items and literature. Additional excellent online resources are available at <https://www.enditnownorthamerica.org/> and <https://women.adventist.org/enditnow-day>.

Choir is starting again! Anyone who loves to sing is most welcome to come. We will rehearse tomorrow, Sunday, September 19, from 5:15-6:15pm. Come to the Gathering Place; we will sit distanced.

We are so proud of our middle school students! They planned and executed their encouraging sidewalk chalk designs which turned out great! We are featured on the 1011 News website! Our students also earned around $1,200 for Haiti, which will double, thanks to a generous matching donor. Our students are amazing and we're proud to be their teachers. They are always looking for a way to be a light to others and it is fantastic!

Support CVA Home & School and do your fall plant shopping at the same time! Shop at <http://cva.fpfundraising.com/> and CVA will receive a 50% kickback! Orders are open until October 15. Plants will ship directly to you - or whoever orders, so share with friends and family locally or around the country! Shipping happens according to your grow zone (we are in Zone 5), so local orders should ship in late September. Thank you for helping us raise money to support our teachers, events, and school projects!

Man Camp coming up with the purpose of connecting 7th-12th grade young men to their dads or older men. We go to Woodland Acres for a weekend and camp, eat, play, pray, worship, and do very hard things together. We offer "Mantivities" where useful skills are taught like, driving a manual transmission, operating a chainsaw, using heavy machinery, backing up a trailer and building a fire. We also do fun things like archery, grappling, and airsoft battles. This year's theme is Blood on the Ground where we're asking men to give it all. We focus on Jesus and the scars He acquired to save us, and then look to see how we might then receive scars for the sake of saving others. Man Camp will be held October 1-3 and registration ends September 27. Register at <https://forms.gle/3SdfPPYPsXWjDvxV9> or contact Mic Henton at 417-631-8580 or mic.henton@collegeviewchurch.org.

Our middle school team at CVA is excited about this year! By becoming more departmentalized, our 6th-8th grade teachers are specialized in their areas of expertise and interest as well as expanding our students' experiences by mixing together and sharing opportunities. This manifests itself in how classes are taught and assessed but also in other ways such as spiritual, social and physical programming. We are excited to have a number of unique opportunities already planned for our 6th-8th grade students. Just this past week the middle school students wrote encouraging messages on the sidewalk at CHI Health and they were featured on the evening news. CVA is blessed beyond measure to have Jeaneen Erickson (grade 6), Casey Prindle (grade 7) & Angela Heam (grade 8) teaching our middle school classes. Our year with the CVA middle school is off to a great start!

A new group of Parents Supporting Parents will be meeting the same nights as Adventurer club at 6:30pm in the conference room. The first seven sessions will focus on praying scriptures for our children. This coincides with our Adventurer meetings and will be led by Pastor Michael and Pastor Shawna. All are welcome!
