A Thanksgiving Poem

Dear Father . . .

Thank you for forming me in my mother's womb,

Thank you for being my future Bridegroom.

Thank you for comforting me, for always being near,

Thank you for calming my deepest, darkest fear.

Thank you for being my song, my strength and my salvation,

Thank you for saving me from everlasting damnation.

Thank you for giving me your Word to live by,

Thank you for collecting all the tears that I cry.

Thank you for satisfying my hunger and thirst,

Thank you for leading me to seek your kingdom first.

Thank you for loving me, for your mercy and favor

Thank you for the gift of grace through your Son, my Savior.

Thank you for making my paths straight,

Thank you for showing me to the narrow gate.

Thank you for your Spirit who lives inside of me,

Thank you for the trust I have placed in thee.

Thank you for making me a child of your own,

Thank you for allowing me to come to your throne.

Thank you for the trials that come my way,

Thank you for the promise of a more peaceful day.

Thank you for forming me in my mother' womb . . .

Thank you in your mansion for reserving me a room!
