

Summer Camp Director

SUMMER CAMP DIRECTOR - WEST VIRGINIA

Valley Vista Adventist Center of the Mountain View Conference of Seventh-day Adventist Church, a year-round Christian camp and retreat center located in Huttonsville, West Virginia, seeks to employ a Summer Camp Director to join our team. The Camp sits on 305 acres with one lake in a beautiful natural setting surrounded by mountains, a river, and a creek. We are seeking a team player with a passion to provide meaningful experiences in camp settings that lead people to new and renewed life in Jesus Christ. The ideal candidate will have experience in a camp ministry setting, with proven leadership abilities, and experience in supervising and motivating staff and volunteers. The Summer Camp Director is the key strategic and management leader of the summer camp program, and therefore, is responsible for overseeing the administration, financial performance, programming, operations, vision, and culture. Other responsibilities include fundraising, marketing, and outreach to diverse populations. The Director will be expected to foster ongoing connections among staffers, campers, local churches, and our community. Anticipated to start as soon as possible.
