Faculty Feature: Jonathan Schwarz

Mr. Schwarz is just one of our many amazing teachers at Mount Ellis Academy. He is our ASB sponsor and History and Bible teacher. He loves living here in Montana for the people and outdoor opportunities. He often enjoys taking his dogs out into the fresh mountain air. He loves his job here at Mount Ellis Academy for how graceful our campus is. He likes that the staff and students are really good at forgiving each other, and laughing at each other's mistakes.

Mr. Schwarz's plan wasn't always to be a teacher. In high school Mr. Schwartz was sure he was going to be a Forest Ranger. Anyone who knows Mr. Schwarz knows that he is a big Dodgers fan! So right now baseball is his favorite sport.

Mr. Schwarz has a close relationship with God, and he loves reading the Gospel of John.

We hope Mr. Schwarz never gets stranded on an island. But if he does, he would want to have his wife, dogs, and cats with him as his three items.

Fun Facts: Mr. Schwarz is an MEA alum, class of '97. Mr. and Mrs. Schwarz are out-numbered in their home. There are more four-legged creatures than humans inhabiting their home! They have several fur-babies including kittens which they frequently foster.
