MORE THAN JUST A WINNER

She is more than many would think of her. She boldly stepped up and spoke her mind about her experience during the first week back to school at Saipan SDA School for the 2021-22 school year term. She's one of the most courageously enthusiastic eighth grade students who was willing to share part of her time in supporting the efforts of the school as she volunteered during the summer school sessions. Jenna Qiu performs as a contemporary gospel music praise dancer and choreographer. "I was sleepy, yet I was too excited for school!" she exclaims. Her spending long hours volunteering working at the store across from the school did not hinder her from taking bold steps in being at school on time, determined. Despite the mosquitoes and practically knowing the history of the hot or high temperature that is always in Saipan, Northern Mariana Islands, Jenna gladly accepted the challenge and continues to bring great messages of joy and happiness to all students at her cherished SDA school. She was rewarded the $35.00 in Chapel this morning for her outstanding story about her "First Week Back to School". It has been emphasized by all faculty and teachers of Saipan SDA, since the beginning of school, the theme:

"Fruit of the Spirit" in reference to the Scripture in Galatians chapter five, verses twenty-two and twenty-three where August focused on "Love". For the September month the focus is on "Peace". It was expressed in Jenna's story how she was so happy of singing their school's new "song of the year". In her own words she said, "We had chapel! Chapel was very fun! We were singing a song called, 'The Light of the World'. Everyone was singing, it was so good!". The school thanks Jenna Qiu for her impressive short story, she's more than just a winner.

CDC CHILDREN'S CORNER

Yes! They move quicker than lightning! Yes! They jump and run, having much fun! "I just keep up with them," Samantha says. "They are a lively, exciting bunch of love and joy." Ms. Charito, along with Samantha, make up the Pre-School teaching team at Saipan's SDA Child Development Center. From 7am to a little after 4:30pm, Monday through Friday, they work closely together feeding, laughing, singing, praying, teaching, playing, comforting, and perform in a lot of positive ministries as they do their best in nurturing their precious Pre-School group. All the CDC teachers are grateful and appreciative of the parents who entrust their children to the loving and caring capable hands of the CDC program of Saipan SDA. This act of gratitude is shown and expressed in all the teachers even in the elementary school.
