SOCCKER BALL FEVER

Getting in shape for their first experience playing with other schools. Richard McWilliams, 3rd and 4th grade Lead Teacher (also Athletic Director) at Saipan Seventh-day Adventist School, motivated many students who were willing to take on the challenge of sharing their gift of athletic ability with the Saipan-Northern Mariana Island community. Even dedicated parents are able to share in this great experience as well. The students ran about, dressed out, stretched out, worked out, and reached out to share in a team-like spirit of unity, which has been the "Soccer-Fever" of the school. It is because of their cooperative spirit of this exciting team of Saipan SDA School that many other children are active in other sports, basketball as one of them. Many parents have joined forces with Saipan's athletic director in an optimistic way because they also believe that working hard and smart in the upbuilding of their children bring about positive changes for them and society. Likewise, the school administration thanks

YOUNG WRITER'S REWARD

She tells her true story of how happy she was when her dad said to her, "We are going to Managaha Island!" she was so excited that she "was leaping with joy! I got my swimsuit on in a flash." After preparing the family jumped in the car and traveled to the dock where they were able to board in the boat time to make the trip to the island. When they landed on the island her sister "Ila started playing in the sand. Harper relaxed and I swam. We were having so much fun!" Scarlett Loken was willing to share her exciting true story with many students at Saipan SDA School. She was rewarded $35.00 at the Friday (weekly) Chapel gathering for her outstanding courage sharing her unique true story and designing a full-color creative illustration page.
