TODAY'S MESSAGE

We welcome Bert Jager to the Sequim Church Pulpit this morning with a message appropriate not only for our Veterans who have served the nation, but for all veterans who serve our Lord Jesus in the cause of Christianity. Bert served in the U.S. Army from 1964 to 1968, and again from 1971 to 1984. We also welcome all of our military Veterans this morning and offer a collective "Thank You" for your service. You have blessed all of us who live here in America.

Prayer is the breath of the soul.

It is the secret of spiritual power. No other means of grace can be substituted and the health of the soul be preserved. Prayer brings the heart into immediate contact with the Wellspring of life, and strengthens the sinew and muscle of the religious experience. Neglect the exercise of prayer, or engage in prayer spasmodically, now and then, as seems convenient, and you lose your hold on God. The spiritual faculties lose their vitality, the religious experience lacks health and vigor....

It is a wonderful thing that we can pray effectually, that unworthy, erring mortals possess the power of offering their requests to God. What higher power can man desire than this—to be linked with the infinite God? Feeble, sinful man has the privilege of speaking to his Maker. We may utter words that reach the throne of the Monarch of the universe. We may speak with Jesus as we walk by the way, and He says, I am at thy right hand.

Ellen G. White, Messages to Young People,
In Touch with the Infinite
