

North American Division Certification Online

The NAD Dashboard allows you to connect to your Teacher Certification Status Sheet.

1. Log into Toolkit - <https://dashboard.nadeducation.org/login>
 - a. Keep in mind, the email address you gave to the person assigning your Educator ID number is the email address needed to log in with.
 - b. If you have problems logging in, contact the person who assigned your Educator ID number.
2. You should now be on the NAD Education Dashboard page, click on the eCertification icon and it will open up a PDF of your Certification Status Sheet.
3. Periodically, review and print the Certification Status Sheet for your record.
4. If you have never taught in the North American Division or your file is inactive, you will not have an ID number to access the information online.
5. If you have questions regarding the information on your Certification Status Sheet, contact:
