

Read the Bible in a Year

- By the Rev. Marek P. Zabriskie, Rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Fort Washington, PA, Founder of the Center for Biblical Studies and The Bible Challenge

The Center for Biblical Studies has designed a one year reading schedule to help those who commit as individuals or as members of a church, a church school or a diocese to read successfully through the entire Bible in a year's time. The CBS intentionally focuses on reading the entire Bible, reading the books of the Bible in sequence and ensuring that a psalm and a portion of the New Testament are read each day in order to provide strong spiritual daily content to sustain readers working through the entire Bible.

You can start this schedule on January 1 or any day of the year that you like. This schedule works ideally if you begin on a Monday because we encourage readers to read portions of the Bible Monday through Saturday and assume that on Sunday they will be in church hearing the Scriptures read aloud. The Bible is best understood in the context of a faith community and by persons who are committed to following the teachings of Jesus and obeying the Word of God in their daily life. Merely hearing the Scriptures read aloud on Sunday, however, is not enough to know and to experience the living, life-transforming Word of God.

We encourage you always to put yourself in the presence of God before you begin reading the Scriptures. Read with a desire to understand and follow the teachings of Scripture so that your life might be transformed by the Holy Spirit working within you as the Word of God is revealed to your heart, mind and soul. We wish you every blessing in your faithful daily Bible reading.

We offer this prayer written by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer in 1549 The Book of Common Prayer as you begin your spiritual journey and The Bible Challenge.

"Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

Congratulations!

You have finished and have done something truly memorable and spiritual rewarding that has transformed your life in ways that you shall. The Lord will honor the effort you have made.

Rather than rest upon your laurels, we strongly encourage you to begin reading the Bible again, this time moving more slowly and deliberately, but ensuring that each day you read a portion of the Scriptures. You may wish to read a different translation this time so that you read passages, which are now more familiar to you, and see slight differences that will reveal deeper meanings and more truths to you. As always, we encourage you to put yourself in the presence of God before you read any portion of the Bible.

If you chose to re-read the Bible and let daily Bible reading become a life-long spiritual practice for you, we recommend that you read the article on “Lectio Divina” on the Center for Biblical Studies web site to help you discover a slow, meditative way of reading the Scriptures that can be life-transforming. Once again, congratulations on achieving a major spiritual goal in your life. You can build greatly on the important spiritual work that you have done.

With prayers and gratitude for what you have accomplished and for prayers for your continued reading of God’s Word each day,

The Rev. Marek P. Zabriskie

Rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania
