Orienteering at Highland Forest

As it was part of their study on maps and compasses, students in grades 1-3 spent the day at Highland Forest yesterday with a special guest-- Pastor Dan Whitlow, Youth

Ministries Director for the New York Conference. Pastor Dan taught the students about magnets and the basic skills of how to use a compass. Everyone enjoyed the fresh air and mild temps as they hiked. Thank you to our chaperones—Kevin Mauro, Kyi Kyi Aye and Monica Sargeant.

Job Supervisors Needed!

Students in Mrs. Kaiser's class are really enjoying the experience of having an assortment of jobs in which they learn a host of valuable life skills—work ethic, honesty, teamwork, money management, and more!

The class could use a couple more adult supervisors to help with these jobs. If you are a parent that drops your child off in the morning and are able to stay around until 8:45am Mrs. Kaiser would appreciate your help. Please contact the office or Mrs. Kaiser directly if you are interested in helping.
